New Daily Paper for San Diego

Union-Tribune Publishing Co. Opposed to Bill of Rights

BUROCRATS HAVE USURPED POWER BY INDIRECTION

By C. Leon de Aryan

When the San Diego Sun folded up and the Union-Tribune Publishing Co. bought its subscribers list, naturally everybody knew that the Copley crowd was going to run hog wild. In the advertising field no competitor was left, except the Shopping News and the Union-Trib. tried to overcome that, too, by carrying a Shopping Page at special rates, periodically. It got so people asked me why I did not start a daily, in competition, since The Broom was the only opposition paper. I explained to my friends that to start a daily takes money and to get money I would have to dance to the tune of the profit-takers, then The Broom would be no longer an independent publication. I can do more good with all my limitations by throwing occasional bombshells of explosive truth when it's most needed, than by stringing along with the profit-takers.

Naturally newspaper money wants more newspaper money, so a certain crowd in Los Angeles financed a young fellow by the name of Clinton D. McKinnon to buy up the Shopping News and the Progress-Journal with the San Diego News thrown in. The combined paper allocation would practically suffice to bring out a daily. Now the financiers don't care whether the daily is pro or anti-Roosevelt, they hope to make money.

At the same time suddenly Capt. Oakley Hall also got a barrel of money to buy up the two remaining Spreckels buildings and you will notice that the Union-Trib. has no lease for its Broadway offices in the Union Bldg. Nothing to stop the Hall crowd to tell the Union-Trib. to get out whenever McKinnon makes a success.

And the Union Trib. got it coming, they begged for it. They don't believe in Free Press, Bill of Rights, Community Welfare, all they believe in is to squeeze dollars out of San Diego so they hired Walter Ames, the lawyer, and instructed him to do his darndest to tear up the Bill of Rights, annul the Freedom of The Press, because The Union-Trib. are Republicans and McKinnon proproses to bring out a paper to help keep Ed Isaac in congress. And naturally Walter Ames did the worst he could at the hearing in Washington to induce the burocrats to expunge the Bill of Rights. So he told the War Production Board to allot no paper to McKinnon for a competitive paper. Now that is patriotism for Ames.

But Isaac and Sen. Downey know on which side their bread is buttered, so they pulled strings & McKinnon got his allotment. Nobody asked me to help, and I don't listen to the radio except to Winchell and Pearson to hear what new dirt they are dishing out to advertise me. Then I always print a few extra Brooms to mail out as soon as people from every state in the Union ask for samples. As long as Winchell and Pearson mention The Broom by name, that's all I care for. I could not pay for the ads, so I get them free. Providence!

Many liberal minded people like myself favor another daily, so Republicans and Democrats alike bombarded the burocrats with demands for paper allocation. Is it not a hell of a mess when the Washington crowd can make or break a paper? And "Americans" must ask for permission to issue a daily! Hitler? Hell, that fellow can learn a lot from the New Dealers! They do it nicely, he is too crude! They are smart.

Competition is our safeguard. We will get more news and more Roosevelt propaganda, but I hold with Voltaire that the right to speak one's mind is more important than what one says.

And after you read the two sides of propaganda in the dailies, you'll buy The Broom to get at the truth. They are financed by the profit-takers, like Willkie and Roosevelt were, The Broom is small, but independent.

"A THIRD INDICTMENT"

(Editorial in Chicago Tribune, Jan. 6, 1944)

The first thing to be said about the new conspiracy indictment voted by the grand jury in Washington is that it applies a conclusive test, available to any one, of his devotion to civil liberty. The citizen who is not horrified and outragged by the government's conduct may fancy himself a believer in liberty, but he's kidding himself.

Thirty men and women have been named in the new indictment. Of them, 22 were named in previous indictments, the first voted in July, 1942, and the second in January, a year ago. These men and women have thus been denied their day in court for a year and a half, thru no fault of their own. Great holes were blasted by the court in the earlier charges and the department of so-called justice didn't care to go to trial on what was left. Nevertheless, Mr. Biddle's boys didn't do the only decent and honorable thing to be done in the circumstances, which was to dismiss all charges that were not to be prosecuted. Instead, the old indictments were left standing and are still standing to embarrass and intimidate the defendants.

The conduct of the administration in this matter is particularly odious because the men and women concerned are, for much the most part, people of small means and all of them have been put to considerable added expense to defend themselves far from their homes. Of them it can truly be said, in the words of the Declaration of Independence, that "they were transported . . to be tried". They were indicted in Washington not because the alleged conspiracies occured there but, it is fair to presume, because a jury in government-dominated Washington was regarded as more likely to convict, just as a London court was more likely than a Massachusetts jury to convict an American colonist.

The mass indictment is itself an offense against liberty. The government apparently intends to proceed against all 30 defendants in a single trial in which a great diversity of charges is to be pressed now against one group and now against another, with many overlappings. In the circumstances, to expect any jury to give careful consideration to each man's case is to expect the impossible. The task would strain the intellectual capacity of a trained jurist.

The defendants are charged with conspiring with the Nazis to overthrow our government by undermining the morale of our soldiers and sailors. In pursuit of this alleged conspiracy the defendants are accused of having said and written a great number of things. Some of the statements attributed to the defendants can be defended as true, and many are false and vicious, but they are all in comment on public affairs and as such any citizen under our Constitution has the right to utter them. It is highly significant that Mr. Biddle is not proceeding against the defendants for having said these things, for that kind of prosecution would be in direct violation of the Bill of Rights. Instead, the statements are cited as proof of the existence of a conspiracy. Perhaps the jury will be confused.

We say the conduct of the government in these cases is the test of any one's belief in civil liberty, and we say it precisely because many of the people indicted are cranks, crackpots, or zealots, and because they preached doctrines and dogmas that are unpopular. Obviously the test of any one's belief in liberty, as has been pointed out a thousand times, is his willingness to allow liberty of belief and expression to those he hates and for opinions he abhors.

What may be the truth about the men and women now under indictment, it is altogether certain that their desire to undermine the republic was no more determined than that of the Communists in this country. Mr. Biddle has shown distinguished consideration to his Communist friends. The administration gave freedom to Browder. The Communists have never made a secret of their determination to destroy the Republic and, in addition, have acquired a great many places within the government from which to attack it. Nevertheless, they are not under official fire and, as long as they can deliver votes to the New Deal, they won't be, it may be predicted with the greatest confidence.

EDITOR'S NOTE.—The Chicago Tribune, deserves thanks for its never-ending fight for human liberty. We have only two objections to the foregoing masterpiece.

(1) It is not the "government", which is engaged in persecution. It is the "Administration"; or, if you refer to the "courts", it is the "Federal Prosecution" —an arm of the Executive branch. Atty Gen. Biddle's men wrongly refer to themselves as "the government"; in reality, their correct title is "counsel, or attorneys, for the United States".

It was Mr. Roosevelt's Red assistants, who, in American history, first began to refer to themselves as "the government". Their intent was to prejudice every jury, grand and petit, against the defense.

(2) There is not the slightest proof so far that any of the 41 anti-Communists, who have been under persecution in this "history book" case, ever advocated the downfall, or showed any desire "to undermine the republic".

But there is plenty of open proof, over many years, that the "vermin" Alien-American Communists were in a constant conspiracy to overthrow our government; and Sec. 10 of Title 18, U. S. Code of Laws, covers exactly that sort of a conspiracy. The New Deal has never made an arrest under that section (10).

The true nature of the "third indictment" is revealed in the fact that the 30 indictees are NOT accused of violating Sec. 10, but that of Sec. 11, as "conspiracy to violate Sec. 9", which forbids urging any member of the armed forces to revolt.

No overt act has ever been presented in any of these indictments, which connected any one of the 30, or 41, with even one member of the armed forces.

The first thing the new Republican president will do next January will be to pardon and throw out every political persecution case, under indictment or in prison, exactly as Thomas Jefferson did on March 4, 1801.

Publisher Jailed for Refusing to Change His Answers in Sedition Case

WASHINGTON— Douglas M. Stewart, co-publisher of the defunct Scribner's Commentator, was sentenced to 90 days in jail for contempt of court by refusing to give answers to the special District grand jury investigating sedition, to suit the prosecution.

Simultaneously Chief Justice Edward C. Eicher took steps to bring the case to early trial against 30 persons accused of conspiring to undermine the morale and loyalty of the armed forces and to set up a Nazi regime in this country.

E. J. Parker Sage appeared in District Court to become the first person under the new indictment, to be arraigned here. Sage, who comes from Detroit, and was publisher of the Nationalistic News Letter, pleaded innocent to the indictment. He was released under $2500 bond after agreeing to sign a statement that he was a pauper in order to have counsel appointed by the court.

Stewart was nervous as he sat before the justice to hear the proceedings against him. On two other occasions, it was related by O. John Rogge, special assistant to the Attorney General, Stewart had appeared before the grand jury to deny he knew the source of three bundles containing $36,000 in $20 bills he said were found in his home and office at Lake Geneva, Wis., in the summer of 1940..

Stewart was ordered on Thursday to give "forthright and true'" answers to the questions. Justice Eicher insisted that he knew the answers and that they were pertinent to the inquiry which has bordered on the activities of groups here who were close to congressional sources and flooded the Nation with propaganda before and after the war began.

Repeats Testimony

Stewart appeared before the grand jury in the morning and repeated his previous testimony that he had no idea where the money came from. He said it was later used to form the Lake Geneva Herald, a weekly newspaper, which was sent all over the country and to soldiers in outposts elsewhere. This newspaper was critical of the conduct of the Administration in foreign policy and national defense.

Stewart's attorney, Warren Magee, argued that the court was constrained not to hold the publisher in contempt until he was given a full hearing. Magee said Stewart was put in the position of being ordered to tell what the Government thought to be the truth, based on other testimony.

Judge, Attorneys Meet

Stewart, according to Rogge, was not charged with perjury but with being a contimacious and obstructive witness before the grand jury.

Justice Eicher met with Rogge and other Justice Department attorneys to iron out problems and arrange for early pleadings so the case can be brought to trial. Rogge wants the trial to begin in March.

Justice Eicher ordered that all defendants be arraigned and file motions before January 22 and to have the motions disposed of on January 31.

GRAVY FOR SMALL PAPERS

The Senate has passed Senator J. R. Bankhead's (D.-Ala.) bill to subsidize small newspapers with war bond ads doled out by the Government. Total gravy, if the House concurs, will be 12½ to 15 millions a year. The idea, of course, is that the papers thus oiled will be loyal to the Administration. The bill was passed because most of the small papers wanted it passed.

Government subsidies have been dealt out to smaller newspapers for years, in the form of free Post Office delivery inside the county of publication. Some not so small papers, too, in some goodsized cities, have gladly accepted this subsidy.

The Bankhead bond ad bill is just an Administration effort to grapple a part of the press of the United States to the Administration's bosom with Government checks.

China at Banker's Mercy

WHO'LL DICTATE IN CHINA? RUSSIA or ROTHSCHILD?

WASHINGTON— Now that first hand interpretations of the Cairo pact have settled down to the point where they can be judged in balanced retrospect it is evident that the most important conclusions were not made public.

The political implication was that China will dominate the whole Asia territory in the post-war era. Certainly there will be no other nation to balance or offset its power, with Japan destroyed and India weak and still unfree, unless Russia decides to take a hand—and it may.

The danger of complete Chinese domination, of course, is that such a setup will create an Asiatic nationalistic force of great power.

The authorities here, however, say China is now so weak politically, economically and financially, that the assignment of this power to her could not possibly raise her up to become a world force for perhaps twenty to twenty-five years. Indeed, most Chinese authorities in the Administration expect financial collapse after the war.

Declared a legal newspaper of general circulation for the County and City of San Diego, in California, by Superior Court Order, January 15, 1932.

A Republican newspaper, standing for a clean sweep of the Augean stables. Fearless fighter for a truthful, just, vigilant and tolerant nationalism. Lover of the Constitution and the Founding Fathers. Defender of free speech and free press, as the foundation stones of the republican form of government. Opponent of injustice, tyranny and oppression, and of all "isms" except Americanism.

How the B'nai B'rith Rob the Jews

Americans were astounded to read about the Gestapo in Germany, they revolted at the idea that a cultured nation, like the Germans of Wagner, Schiller, Goethe, etc., would stoop to such brutal tyranny. The same feeling existed here against the Soviet OGPU. What Americans did not know is that the OGPU and the Gestapo also existed in the U. S. A. Since Stalin joined the Allies we hear nothing about the OGPU or the millions of Russian slave-prisoners who are sweating on many of the great development jobs in Stalin's realm, from Stalingrad to Vladivostock.

To understand the Hitler regime of finance and policy one must remember that the Nazis are nothing but copy-cats, like the Japs and the Soviets. The plans for all-out-war, for totalitarianism were worked out by the U. S. A. army and the Nazis copied our "secret plan" right after peace was declared and German officers were permitted to study our preparations for an eventual world war II. It was all in the blue print stage but Hitler went ahead and tried it out first in Germany, being financed by the Bank of France and of England brokers, since Hitler had no funds to start his strong arm racket.

All the Nazi financial set-up is bodily taken over from the French, Dutch, English and Wall Street brokers with Nazis collecting the profits in place of the Rothschilds. The system is exactly the same crooked one by which we pay the Bankers for the use of money they don't have but which the U. S. treasury issues to them at the rate of 8 cts for $1000, as often as they earmark a $1000 bond as collateral. You pay 8% for money and give a 225% collateral and the Banker only pays 8 cts for $1000 and can buy another bond with it, collect interest on all earmarked bonds, deposit the new bond too and for 8 cts collect another $1000, free gratis and do that at infinitum. You wondered how suddenly the Bankers could give credit to the U. S. for hundreds of billions of dollars when they were broke in 1933-34. Well, they just have the U. S. treasury print $1000 bills which are sold to them for 8 cts, each. At that rate anybody can buy bonds for billions and billions.

But lets return to the Gestapo. In the U. S. every once in a while one hears that the Jews are going to be murdered, persecuted, their property and citizenship taken away from them. As soon as the Jews get excited enough and worked up over it, then a delegation of local Jews calls on the merchants & they collect contributions from each to save the Jews in America from a pogrom. Some of the merchants know that it is blackmail, but no Jew dares call it so openly. They know that they are powerless to oppose the racket as individuals, and they know that many crooked Jews are creating a revulsion against sharp Jewish practices in business and government. So they are afraid. They know that when the mob riots they go after all Jews, good and bad.

Now if the B'nai B'rith were to go after the crooked Jews and teach them that in America Jews are treated like white men, therefore should live and act and think like white men, nobody would point the finger at a Jew and say, "he is a Jew", meaning he is a crook and cutthroat.

But instead of doing constructive work, the B'nai B'rith have spread an octopus dragnet all over the U. S. A. and use Gestapo methods to blackmail those who don't do the bidding of the racketeers. Exactly like the labor racket unions and every Jew is forced to support the racketeers if he wants to be unmolested, so he pays.

Then from time to time the racketeers must show results for the money. They cannot call a strike so they "round up the Nazis". They start a Jack Tenney investigating committee and slip de Aryan's name to Mr. Tennenbaum. "Get that fellow and we will make you state senator". So Jackie does the dirty work and the B'nai B'rith tell the gullible Jews, "see, we are protecting you". They don't tell the Jews that they are tearing the Bill of Rights to pieces when they sign that monster petition to the President to have de Aryan indicted by a jury in D. C. because the jury in L. A. refuses to do their dirty work.

And so it goes. The Jews pay for protection and the B'nai B'rith keep them as firmly in their grip as Pegler has disclosed in the labor racket.

When will Jews wake up and realize that the country is getting sick of the labor racket and the B'nai B'rith Gestapo simultaneously. Does the average Jew want to pay the penalty for being a paying member of the Jewish Gestapo? Some day those lists will come to light.

I warned you people against excesses all the time. I stood with you in San Diego when the Silvershirts started their blood curdling propaganda about Jewish ritual murders. The dailies did not dare help you, then.

But you are narrow minded and ignorant and are your own worst enemies.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S INSPIRATION

Does God inspire Mr. Roosevelt in his public activities or is the source of his inspiration to be found to be the other fellow? Let's look at the record!

There can be no doubt but that FDR repealed the 18th amendment and as a result the whole nation has filled its brains with inspiration, only it was not divine by any long shot. The spirits that flooded the U. S. A. have dimmed, not enlightened the perceptive faculties of their recipients.

Now Boake Carter found a new God who wrote a new bible in which this "God" calls Jesus the anti-Christ, which, of course, then, reverses the laws of nature and would make FDR's source of inspiration that flooded the nation with booze, quite "divine". But let us again look at the record.

While Father Divine bought his estate across the Hudson River from F D R, so now we have two "divines" facing each other, black and white, the record again reveals that Sam Rosenman writes F D R's speeches. Not even Boake Carter has yet announced to us that Sam is God, too, or is Bernie Baruch God? Or Felix Frankfurter?

That the White House is haunted by those spirits is again supported by the record, still I continue to have my doubts about their brand of divinity. "Time will tell?" But history repeats itself!

Whenever on the eve of an election we hear that the incumbent is indispensable and divinely inspired and that he is the government and we owe him loyalty, then, I call this political propaganda. When a lovely woman spreads it with zacharine sweetness and insists that all critics shut their mouths because they are "disloyal to our government", then that woman is nothing but another political advance agent for dictatorship in the U. S. A. by the clique in the White House. And none of us needs have any scruples to expose this propaganda in these critical days when the life of the Republic is in the balance.

Such ideas about "divine appointment" are quite catchy. Hitler had spread it most successfully in Germany and millions have swallowed it hook, line and sinker. The King of England also is the head of his Church. The Pope, too, is infallible. One can see how easily people fall for such stuff and when the advance agents for a dictatorship in the U S. A. start their "divine" propaganda let's not ignore it as harmless. It is as harmless here as Hitler's divine mission. The world is bathed in blood and tears by these "inspired leaders"!

In these United States of America we do not propose to spread the doctrine of divine appointments of our leaders. Whenever the chosen people chose their leader and sweet women cater to them for business reasons, then it behooves us to bring out clearly the principle of religion and let its light disclose to us whether the chosen leader was chosen by God or the other fellow.

Being partisans of the truth we are always willing to give the Devil his dues and give God what is God's.

WHAT ONE MAN DID

He was born of wealthy parents.
He showed no exceptional scholastic aptitude.
He early identified himself with the Democratic Party.
He was almost a constant failure in business enterprises.
He governed an important subdivision, and was later elevated to the highest position in the land.
He used this position to make vast experiments.
He tampered with the calendar.
He instituted purges against those who opposed him.
He packed the law body with men who would do his bidding.
The Senate deliberated but he drew the most important powers into his own hands.
He spent unprecedented sums of public money, with the unreserved approval of the common people.
His unbounded authority established him as a dictator.
And with that came THE END OF THE REPUBLIC.

'Undermining Morale' -- No Such Law

By Publius, Jr.

Smart lawyers are wondering why the new deal Administration's three so-called "sedition" indictment of its critics bear the false designation of "conspiring to undermine the morale of the armed forces."

There is, of course, no such law on our statute books, and hence there can be no such crime as "undermining morale".

Nearly every newspaper in the Unetid States carried stories in July, 1942, and January 1943, stating that the leading isolationist critics of the New Deal and of "political Judaism" were being indicted for "conspiracy to undermine the morale of the armed forces", and even some of the legal commitment papers signed by United States officials had similar false wordings.

Undermining the G. O. P.

One wonders why the "Justice" branch of the Executive Department (sometimes incorrectly called "the government") should encourage all this false talk about "morale". Hardboiled Anti-New Deal lawyers believe that this studied and cultivated deception is put out for the purpose of "undermining the morale" of the Republican opposition party, and of throwing fear into the hearts of all independent editors in the United States.

The dean of the Columbia School of Journalism stated three months after the first indictment was returned that the New Deal had "frozen the free press of the United States" (obviously for political reasons).

The "Dealers" want the press of the country to feel that, if they criticize the chief servant of the people, constitutionally known as the "Chief Executive" they will be undermining the morale of the people and of the armed forces and thus are violating some law. If there were such a law, it would be wholly unconstitutional.

"Hatchet Men" Ignorant?

There is, of course, the possibility that the New Deal "hatchet men" who drew up the unique anti-free-press indictments were simply ignorant of the law themselves—were unable to understand the language of the statute. It should not have puzzled them.

In the statute, Title 18, Section 9, United States Code of Laws, the words "with intent to impair the loyalty, morale or discipline" of the armed forces are purely adjectival or adverbial.

"Premeditation" is not a crime in any State; yet the kiling of a human being, with "premeditation", is first degree murder, with the penalty of death.

Crime Is In the Advice

Similarly, "the intent to impair the morale of the armed forces" is no crime. The crime lies in the action words "to advise, counsel, urge, or in any manner cause insubordination . . . . by any member of the military or naval forces."

And even such advice, although unpatriotic, is not unlawful, unless done "with the intent to impair the loyalty, morale or discipline" of the armed forces.

Another word falsely used by almost the entire American press is "sedition", which under our laws applies only to men actually in the armed forces. The word "sedition" cannot be leggally used to apply to civilians. The Smith Act of June 28, 1940, forbids civilians to urge, by speech or writing, any member of the armed forces to revolt, provided that such unpatriotic advice is uttered with the "intent" to cause insurrecetion by some member of the armed forces. The word "sedition" is not used in the Smith Act.

"Dealers" Victimize Press

Our American press was victimized by New Deal press releases into publishing that the 33 editors, publishers, journalists, lawyers, doctors, evangelists, engineers and soldiers, who had criticized the New Deal, were "charged with sedition". That was untrue. They were charged with "conspiracy" to cause insurrection. That is all.

The persecuted defendants were unanimous in declaring that there was lacking proof of even one single contact by any of the 33, in speech or writing, with any member of the armed forces, and that among the six thousand persons who had deserted the army or resisted the draft, not one had ever pointed an accusing finger at any one of the 33 as having ever influnced his conduct in the slightest degree.

There never have been in world history such freak indictments as those drawn up by the New Deal Justice Department in July, 1942, and January, 1943.

Remember Pearl Harbor

THE ROAD TO WAR

MADISON, Wisc.— The State Department's second volume of diplomatic documents, published Dec. 4, contains material which raises interesting questions with regard to the method of our involvement in war. It has been generally accepted that the Japanese were "carrying on negotiations with us" right down to the attack on Pearl Harbor, and that the latter was an unprovoked and treacherous blow out of a clear sky.

The special Japanese envoy, Kurusu, has been pictured as coming especially to throw us off guard while the "stab in the back" was being prepared.

The State Department's recently published volume, however, presents a somewhat different picture. The government of Gen. Hideki Tojo, which took office Oct. 18, 1941, was formed—this volume reveals—on the specific basis of reaching a peaceful understanding with the United States.

Joseph C. Grew, our well-informed Ambassador to Japan, reported that in the conference which immediately preceded the formation of the Tojo Cabinet—a conference in which the Emperor participated with leading members of the Privy Council and of the armed forces—the sovereign asked "if they were prepared to pursue a policy which would guarantee that there would be no war with the United States". They evidently were, and the Emperor ordered them to act accordingly. The new Cabinet immediately dispatched the special envoy Kurusu to Washington to negotiate here.

Envoy Kurusu arrived in November, evidently with instructions to reach an agreement on a basis previously discussed and tentatively agreed to by representatives of the two governments. On Nov. 26, however, the American government presented the Japanese with wholly new demands, calling upon the Japanese to "withdraw all military, naval, air and police forces from China and from Indo-China", and "not support—military, politically—any government or regime in China other than the National Government of the Republic of China, with capital temporarily at Chungking". Japanese assets in the United States had already been "frozen", and an increasingly tight embargo was already being enforced against Japan.

Secretary Hull did not expect these new demands would be accepted. In fact—according to the New York Times correspondent Arthur Krock, under date of Dec. 17, 1941—Secretary Hull "felt sure that the reply of Tokyo to the proposals of Nov. 26 would be an expansion of the war somewhere in the Pacific area at the first moment that appeared to be propitious and . . . issued a private warning to his associates to look for it at any time."

That these warnings were issued we know from the Roberts Commission's report of Jan. 23, 1942. On Nov. 27, 1941, the Chief of Naval Operations, the Army Chief of Staff, and the Chief of Military Intelligence sent most remarkable and significant messages to their chief officers at Hawaii and elsewhere, stating that negotiations with Japan "had ended"; that hostilities were "momentarily possible"; but that "this nation should not commit the first overt act".

On Dec. 7, the Japaneses struck. Hull's expectations were fulfilled. And Congress, which had shown such strong resistance to repeal of the Neutrality Act in November, was brought by this "overt act" to virtually 100 per cent support of the war.

The State Department has shed revealing light on the situation. Its disclosurers can well be the starting point for that full-dress Congressional investigation of American foreign policy as it functioned between World Wars I and II which is bound to come when hostilities end.

WHAT IS LIFE ?

Dear Kosti:

One of the most intellectual friends I have is Mrs. Frank L. Hammer, 101 Parnassus St., S. F., She writes, asking me to define "LIFE", and to ask brainy friends for ideas. I think she is writing a series of articles, of which she is most capable. I do not know many persons to whom I might impudently appeal, but among them is yourself, whose scintilations I have often enjoyed. Won't you please grant me time enough out of your busy life, to express your comprehension of Life.

Incidentially, one of the noblest poems I ever read was that of Malloch:

"We call this life that is life's preparation.
We call this life a little time of tears.
But think you God designed creation
For these few short years?

If this be all, then why these worlds around us,
These countless skies and undiscovered stars?
I wonder, though in this small world we find us,
Why God made so many trillion stars?

So many things my soul has no incline
To which the man of flesh so fondly clings
Shall that soul die when these things I am through with,—
These fleshly things?"

It is a subject I have pondered and written on, often. I would appreciate your sapient views.

With New Year felicitations, I am, as of yore,
Your friend, in all humility,
ERNEST CRUTCHER.

P. S. Life means so little to the majority. Maturity of soul only come through and out of PRECEDENT Life and lives. This is not a mere theory of my own. I had to add this as a factor in my opinion. To the majority, life is vegetative. Excuse this interjection.

MAN KNOW THYSELF !

Dear Dr. Crutcher:

Your interesting letter concerning Mrs. Frank Hammer and her request to define "LIFE", at hand, together with the poem of Malloch, your kind New Year felicitations and your extended P. S. notation about vegetative life.

I wish to reciprocate your New Year's wishes may we be here yet a while to see this chaotic stage cleared up.

Sorry you did not give me your friend's address sooner so I could have visited with her while in San Francisco.

Naturally, LIFE is YOU and I, what else could it be? This for a definition that covers the whole ground, even the stars and the skies and everything in between. Any observant analyst knows that without YOU and I there is no life, for you and me. I am the LIFE, the Alpha and Omega of all that is, ever was and ever will be, without me there is nothing and all I possibly could know is myself and from it know those of my kind. Whatever is beyond me is out of my ken. To affect me it first has to enter my sphere of being.

The principle of this definition lies in the fact that eyes do not see where there is no individual behind the eyes to note what the eye REFLECTS. The eye merely reflects, the man behind the eye sees and what does he see? To see is to think. Two people look at the same thing and each sees something else in it. The crassest example is a nude, beautiful woman.

One man will see in her his desire to possess her. The other will see a beautiful example of living art. I would immediately read her lines and proportions to see where she stands in evolution, what her character is, what she is able to do, what to expect of her under certain stresses.

A doctor would say she is perfectly healthy or has signs of this and that malady. And the little boy might say, "Mother, aren't you ashamed?" If she be his mother.

Thus to see is to think and many who have eyes see not.

Therefor, all of life lies in our own consciousness, where else could it be? The stars speak to us, but only as we understand their language, do we perceive them. And do we know the stars? Do we know anything as it really is? Do we even know ourselves?

There is none so intimate with you as you are. To know LIFE is to KNOW yourself, what else could you define? By what standard would you define it? The standard must of necessity be yourself.

We speak of God in our ignorance to cover up our ignorance. The Buddhists have no anthropomorphic God. They have a STATE of bliss and perfect ORDER in which YOU and I find ourselves at the end of the road. Thus it is taken for granted that YOU are the GOD you find at the end of the road in evolution. You find yourself, as you REALLY ARE, the illusion of limitation and circumscription disappears to make room for NIRVANA, the state of REALITY as contrasted to illusions of a passing nature.

And where were the illusions? In our minds, but when we unfolded our true ability to know ourselves as we are, the puzzle is solved, the mystery is cleared and THAT is LIFE. "To know God is Life, eternal", says Jesus. YOU and I in the full exercise of our being which is WISDOM, BLISS, POWER and naturally LOVE that spreads happines and harmony thruout creation. Then LIFE comes into its own.

Lovingly, as always, KOSTI.

Dear Mr. de Aryan:— Through our mutual friend Dr. Crutcher, we have rec'd your most interesting definition to "What is Life?" It is one of the most outstanding we have obtained. Truly Life is all within, and in the MIND. "As a man thinketh so is he." We shall be glad to secure any other replies you may be able to elicit from friends.

The Title "BROOM" has an intriguing sound. In deed a broom could be well applied. We would enjoy reading a copy of your magazine. Many thanks and much success,

LYDIA HAMMER,
101 Parnassus Avenue, San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Hammer:

By separate enclosure I am mailing you two copies of recent issues of THE BROOM. Thanks for your card. Hope some of our readers try their hand at the definition and send you their papers directly. I am reprinting Dr. Crutcher's letter, as well as my paper and your card.

Permit me to call your attention to your quotation: "Truly Life is all within, and in the MIND".

This is a mistatement, in part, though it might mean that Life is also in the mind, but if it were to sound that "Life is all in the Mind", then it is the same fallacy that Mary Baker Eddy has spread.

Life is not all in the MIND.

The mind is just about one third part of our being. Life is all in our Consciousness, but Mind is merely one third of our conscious faculties. We possess WILL, which is NOT mind, the mind obeys the will. And then comes the "I", the EGO, the real being who possesses both Will AND Mind. Life is nothing but the play, the exercise of the EGO. The EGO produces the "show" called LIFE. There is a vast difference between mind and consciousness, for while the mind records, there is consciousness that ante-dates mind. "I" is, long before the mind comes into play.

Sincerely, yours, C. LEON de ARYAN.

God Knows Not About the War

From time to time I visit with Mrs. de Aryan. Fred lives with her and our friendly agreement is that the children shall be free to live with either parent, then the other may visit at pleasure. That gives us a chance to talk over things of mutual interest without spoiling our lives by incompatibility of too close association and familiarity.

So the other evening Mrs. de Aryan said: "I had lunch with a Christian Scientist and as we spoke about the war, she said, 'God does not know there is a war', to which I replied, 'If that is so then I'd say we better get us a new God who does! Don't you think, Kosti, that God is omniscient?"

"Veiva, you pulled a boner. You tried to be smart. Never be smart. Just be simple."

"What do you mean? God is omniscient, is He not?"

"Veiva the C. S. is right. Now don't try to defend yourself, or else you won't follow what I am about to show you. Smart people are always smarter than the truth. Did Jesus not tell us that the simple minded will inherit the Kingdom of God? He always had trouble with the smart boys, the scribes and Pharisees. So don't be smart .Just love the Truth. It's much simpler."

"Allright, allright, stop preaching, now tell me about God."

"To understand God's position in this matter you must not be prejudiced and must forget your Catechism notions. The war is a temporary affair. God is not affected by temporary things. God lives in Eternity. What is time compared to Eternity? Even a few thousand years! In God's Consciousness there is no time. All of time is comprised in NOW. Place yourself into that state of consciousness where all is condensed into one flash: NOW!

"You find then that all phenoma spring forth from the Principle underlying the line of phenomena. In God's consciousness there is only Principle. The Principle of Time is NOW. All you know about time is now. Now it's morning, now it's evening. Now I am hungry, now I am cold, now I am happy, now Major Bowers is dead, too.

"The Buddhists have no God, instead they have the Principle of Wisdom and Perfect Order where there is no illusion, no falsehood. Place yourself into that state of Consciousness. Look at the stars. Think of the Infinity of all these millions and billions of universes. What happens to this war? It becomes insignificant. Why should God worry about it? The principle of all phenomenal life, from God's viewpoint, is so perfect that He needs not worry about anything in the phenomenal worlds. The worry is ours, the responsibility is ours. Blondie's boy friend worries about nothing because he is irresponsible, no responsibility in his mind.

"God is not responsible for this war. We make it. All who are a part in the machinery of the war carry the responsibility, they must pay for the cost, and cannot escape it. But God is not in it, knows nothing about it, because war is foreign to His nature. His nature is Love, pure and unadulterated."

"But Kosti, what does omniscient mean then?"

"Omniscient means all wisdom combined. God has the solution for all problems."

"If the responsibility is all ours, why pray?"

"Now you said it, Veiva, why pray? You don't pray to God to wash your face, do you? But when you discover your ignorance and don't know what to do, then pray for Wisdom. The Buddhist is right. He prays for Wisdom. Jesus says when you need Wisdom ask of God, not of Roosevelt and his smart boys, not of the Pope, but of God, for God is the Principle of Wisdom. There lies the power of prayer. When you are meek and realize your ignorance and don't try to be smart, but humbly ask in your heart for Wisdom and long for the Love of Truth, Wisdom comes to you.. And in God's Wisdom everything is provided for. God knows that in all Creation everything is perfectly balanced and all evil is produced by agents who will not learn otherwise except by bitter experience. When they have learned their lesson they stop producing evil, learn to love God instead and the evil subsides, disappears as darkness disappears with sunlight. So God needs take no notice of evil. It's temporary and having provided the cure, why should He bother about our folly? When we'll come to our senses we will obey Him in place of Roosevelt, Churchill, Stalin, Hitler and Hirohito and there, wars are no more."

Jews vs. Quakers

Have you ever heard of legislators getting up in congress or the state legislatures saying: "Ladies and gentlemen: The Quakers are hated by our constituents and we must pass legislation to protect them. We must make it a felony for anybody to stir up strife on religious and racial grounds. Quakers are a queer race of people and are not appreciated. They are in danger of being exterminated."

Why it is that the name Quaker is a badge of Kindliness, of human concern?

Why is it that the name Jew conjures the opposite of Quaker? Quakers are queer people and Jews are queer people, but we make fun of Quaker peculiarities with a kindly attitude towards their eccentricities, not so though towards the Jew. It is because we are all wrong?

Could it not possibly be that in all his queerness the Quaker is a kindly soul? That his queerness is merely in secondary things, but in his heart he is solid gold? The Quaker too thinks we are queer. "The whole world is queer but thee and me", said the Quaker to his wife, "and sometimes me-thinks thee art a little queer, too."

This raises a laugh out of us but no resentment, but the Jew's peculiarities are of a different nature. Wherever the Jew lives he fouls his nest.

I have been, perforce, thrown together recently with anti-Semites. I was in jail with them, I was shackled to William Dudley Pelley, the Silvershirt commander, but none of them hates the Jew. They all complain about the Jew's arrogance and treachery, his sharp practices, his ruthlessness.

Why does nobody have that feeling about the Quakers? Quakers are different from us too. They demand special privileges also and they have them. They don't get drafted for war. They take no oaths of allegiance, yet nobody charges them with abusing their privileges. Nobody calls them aliens. Nobody says they are disloyal.

Should the Jews not do a little thinking? Could it be that people who love the Christ are entitled to special consideration because they do better than the average, they are eager to love and serve their fellowman.

Jews adhere to the original Aryan fire worship by lighting candles. But Quakers keep the flame of Love and Compassion burning in their hearts.

"God cannot be mocked, what ye sow that shall ye also reap." The hand-writing on the wall is plain.

The chosen people have chosen Mammon, the Quakers have chosen Christ.

Could it be that history is wrong and all the world is out of step but the Jew? Egypt had to protect itself against "democrats and new dealers", so did Babylon, Rome, Spain and Germany. Why? Intolerant England persecuted the Quakers, but not America. When the Quakers were free to show their stuff they went up fast in world esteem. Not only in Pennsylvania, but everywhere in the world the name Quaker is associated with the thought of human kindness.

But the Jew is hated in his homeland, in Palestine, by his brother Semites, the Arabs and the Jew is "persecuted" wherever he goes. Now the Congress must protect the poor Jew by passing legislation. Why does the Congress not have to protect the Quaker by equal measures?

The Jew breeds strife and hatred and insists on collecting the last pound of flesh. He wants his enemies exterminated.

The Quaker makes no enemies. He is kind and considerate to all human beings.

Jews are queer and Quakers are queer, too. Ain't it queer, though, that Quakers are peace makers and reap accordingly, or are we to assume that the Law of Re-action turned queerly against Jews and Jews only!?

As long as the Jewish Examiner of Brooklyn continues to agitate against Christ by saying that His teachings are to the disadvantage of Judaism with a vengeance, this queer difference between Jews and Quakers becomes more and more pronounced.

It is useless to tell us to treat Jews as we treat Quakers as long as Jews agitate against Christ and His teachings of Love and Compassion, because these are against Judaism.

That kind of Judaism cannot prevail, will not prevail, must not prevail if Love and Compassion it to prevail.

ORIGIN OF GOODBY

Our goodby is a shortened form of "God be with ye". "So Long" is thought to be an American corruption of the word salaam ("peace") as heard in the Moslem greeting "Salaam alei--kum", meaning "May peace be unto you", perhaps brought to America by Moselm slavers, or African slaves.

MY ADVENTURES IN AMERICA

By C. Leon de Aryan

Marion Fay vs. C. Leon de Aryan

The most interesting chapter in this book is taking place right now here in San Diego. It is a sort of a public duel between two persons who claim to be in the Christ service, as well as being metaphysical instructors in their own right. I introduced Miss Fay in a previous chapter and now I am able to present the issues involved, as the controversy has developed up to date.

I assume that you know my theory of life. You might not agree with it, but this is what I have proven to myself. There is absolute order in this universe, in the material as well as the spiritual world, or should we say, in the physical and the metaphysical world. Human affairs are being guided by a hierarchy, part of which lives on earth, and part of which is not incarnate but nevertheless hovers about, to counsel, direct and actively enforce the rules. I know, positively, from my own observation this to be the fact, and more than that, I personally have a definite place in that organization.

When every human being finds his and her place in life, then, and only then do we really start to live. Before that we merely drift and wonder, after that we steer for a definite goal and all our efforts are measured, we waste life no more. It is your business to find your scope, I found mine.

Ever since I can think back, my whole ambition has been to find the RULE of God first, so that all things may be added. To my engineer mind this was and is the only sensible effort to make in life. I am still after getting at the truth in every situation, because the RULE of God is the TRUTH, as it concerns every situation, every problem, every individual we meet with in life. Thus to get correct information, and be guided by it, this is the RULE of God. When you train yourself for 57 years to always look first for the truth and then follow it no matter where it leads you, you make that your nature, as it were.

In so doing I encountered obstacles. There are people who profit when other people are kept in ignorance. These smart ones devise all sorts of ways to keep people in ignorance. My theory is that the TRUTH is more powerful than any combination of smart peoples. When I studied Buddhism, which is the most scientific exposition of the order of the universe, I realized what I was to face henceforth in this world and dedicated myself to the service of the Christ. The Christ is nothing but the love to live in all of us. This love is the common denominator in all living beings. Out of this love springs forth the love of your dear ones, because they help you live and enjoy your life. And finally we discover that all living beings are animated by the same love and all are our relatives, because all of life, when manifested in this world, is inter-related. The activities of one group of beings is the basis for the life of another group of beings. The mollusks build the corrals and on it vegetation develops, trees, animals, men come to live. The worm grubs the soil, increases vegetation, trees grow, they bloom, the bugs polinize them, fruit is produceed and man lives on it. The love to live impels the activities of every group and results in benefits for others.

There are smart people who instead of joining in this love to live and help the neighbor to enjoy living, proceed to cheat and rob the neighbor, exploit him, make him work for them without giving him an equivalent for his labors. These smart ones are the hosts of the anti-Christ.

It stands to reason that those who fall in with the love to live and help the neighbor to enjoy life, hold the wining hand. But nevertheless the millions of entities who have incarnated in in human form have so far aberrated from the path of common sense that they imagine that by combining in groups to murder, rob and cheat, they can by force reap freedom, prosperity and rule the world.

These smart ones combined when I was only 18 years, and started to terrorize me by locking me up in an insane asylum to scare me and confound me. All they did is, they cut my ties with my family who had joined in my incarceration and henceforth I was a free individual.

From then on I was stepping up from one experience to another to learn my lessons by actual demonstration in daily life, that the smart ones are all haywire and that the Christ rules supreme, because all beings love to live and can achieve their ends only by scrupulous intellectual honesty in their dealings with each other. Thus a man's word must be as good as his bond and all who break their bond, imagining to be smart, are really our enemies, their own enemies.

I was told that I could not prosper in this world and remain intellectually honest. That is as much as to say that the anti-Christ is the ruling power. The truth is that people will love me better and trust me more, once they find out that I am intellectually honest and mean what I say, and then dare to do it, no matter what combination of smart ones try to frighten me because it interferes with their interests of exploiting ignorant, but gullible humanity.

Well, I raised a family of two boys, I raised them to be intellectually honest, be vegetarians and self-reliant. And I never compromised with my ideals. In the face of increasing opposition I conducted a paper for 13 years, without a penny of capital, merely on the theory that people love to live and want to get the truth, regardless whom it offends. That, and that alone is the capital on which THE BROOM operates.

Finally I landed in jail upon a presidential warrant. A false arrest, a false imprisonment. 6 months in jail without a trial. It is a year and one half since my first indictment, but no trial.

Having demonstrated that no combination of smart fellows can overcome the truth, I was promised by the "Invisible Ones" that I was to meet a soul who would henceforth work with me together in this Christ service Naturally I expected her and looked for her. But one never gets something for nothing. When a mother gives birth to a child her real labors have barely begun. And her headache, too. But the final joy of raising a real living baby to full man and womanhood, repays her.

And so I met the woman, exactly as announced. She met me on July 23, 1943. Her name is Marion Fay. And now the headache starts.

While she is a vegetarian and considers herself in the service of the Christ, her idea is that God inspired the various war makers how to make war and guides them in that grisly business, because KARMA has to be fulfilled. I concede that when men prefer to be smart instead of honest, inevitably they will try to outsmart each other and finally invent dodads to cut each others throat wholesale, but I emphatically deny that God inspires them in that crazy thing.

But says Miss Fay: "I have a business, and my clients are all good patriotic Americans. We all are loyal to our government, and since God loves the American people, He inspires our President how to conduct this war to victory".

To which I reply: "My dear Miss Fay, you are not in the Christ service, but are serving your own fear. You need the money. The Christ has nothing to do with war. As a private person, as an ordinary mortal, as a common citizen you may support the President and the war, but please, please, leave God and the Christ out of it, or else you are playing with holy fires and are going to get awfully burnt; because it is blasphemy to drag God and Christ into the business of wholesale murder, regardless of how patriotic you may consider it. God and Christ are not of this world."

And now the duel is on. "Time will tell", said Miss Fay. "Principle has told it already", is my reply.

Of course, after she was seen with me and people started inquiring what the big idea was and Miss Fay was afraid of losing business, I was quite willing to publish her attitude so everybody will know that her idea is that God inspires our president. My doubts in the matter are based on the record. God and Christ to me, never break their word. But I yet have to know of one single solemn promise Franklin Delano Roosevelt has made, and kept. He was going to economize and reduce the national debt. He was going to keep the country step by step out of war and never again send our boys to fight on foreign shores. I am just wondering what God inspired him to make such solemn promises. If Christ keeps HIS promises no better than Roosevelt kept his, then there is nobody we could ever trust. But Jesus lived up to his promises, in contrast to FDR's example. If I have to chose a leader, I take Christ.

The most amazing part of this chapter is that Marion Fay is theoretically a master in her own line of work. I have learned from her in a few days more than I ever dreamt I could possibly learn, how to relax, not worry and let the things which are my due come to me effortlessly.

Indeed, this must have been my reward for daring to chose jail rather than betray my oath to stand with the Constitution against President Roosevelt and his treacherous new deal that ruins the nation. Now he is sick of his own new deal. I have been working too hard and too strenously and Marion Fay taught me to accomplish more with practically no effort, by simply taking the proper mental, spiritual and physical attitude, and it works to perfection.

But Miss Fay has now to learn her lesson too, namely that the Christ feeds those in His service, and she needs not worry for tomorrow, for where the Christ rules, the worker is worthy of his hire. Christ's rule is not of this world, even though it is more powerful than all the allied armies and fleets combined, because its power lies in the love to live and let live. In this faith is the world reborn, a faith that leads to peace on earth, good will to man and glory to God in excelsis.

Today Miss Fay represents that state of mind exemplified by Saulus of Tarsus. She stands with the "authorities" against the "seditionists". Evidently the two of us were thrown together by Fate, to clash and in the fierce struggle after Truth polish off the "earthly crust" that the jewel may be brought to light. For business reasons Miss Fay is stringing along with the administration. Some day the Christ will call her to account and Saulus will be transformed into an equally fierce Paulus.

MARION vs. KOSTI

I had been wondering why I had to face another tragedy right after coming out of jail. I had expected to meet a congenial soul, an equal, one fervently working in the same service. But there is much work to do yet before I can celebrate.

Metaphysicians are very lopsided people when they run off into "spiritual realms" and ignore the proper value of the physical. Were the material not more important than the spiritual none of us would be here. We came here, in matter, because matter is our job, now. We came from spiritual realms.

Some people come to the U. S. A. from Canada, Germany, etc., but their heart still beats with their place of origin. When I came here I gave up the old country. My whole and my chief interest is centered here in the U. S. A., in the purpose of this government, its people, California, San Diego. Here's where I must make good. This material world.

Mazdaznan makes us wholesome because it proportions all our interest and activities. It gives the preponderance to material achievement. You must be here in the flesh the ideal you preach about, not in some illusory metaphysical world.

Those who slight the material plane and are so superior to it, are snobs, parvenues, Pharisees. The well bred man and woman is wellbred in the flesh. They balance good taste with good stuff and are not slaves to material things but are superior to them by mastering them. They prove themselves wellbred in any circumstances by not being subservient to material conditions against the nobler side of life.

If you'll read verses 25 to 34 of Matthew 6, you'll see how well Jesus describes the wellbred person. It's summed up in verse 33: "Seek ye first his Kingdom and his righteousness".

By seeking the Principle expressed in matter, all these things are added. But Marion is impeccable in food and clothing, and that's all.

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon." —Matthew, 6:24.

I had to work awfully hard to teach myself this lesson. The governments of this world are all brutalitarian, not governments that seek his righteousness first, but governments that cheat, rob and murder first and then arm their young men, and when hell is thus let loose, suddenly they remember God and tell Him to give them victory, they call that "praying for victory".

All governments on earth serve Mammon, none serves God. All wars are over material possessions.

I had to learn to realize that seeking his Kingdom and his righteousness, takes care of all these things. But to do so I had to go to jail because I must speak the Truth and the Truth shall make me free from being "the government's slave". I did it. I denounce all governments as being opposed to the Christ spirit, Christ life. Jesus was crucified for that very fact.

But times are changing and the most daring ones among us still survive and speak the Truth.

To place one's faith completely in Matthew 6:33, frees one from material worries; but that does not mean that we should neglect or ignore material values and necessities; only instead of being a slave we master them.

The metaphysician who "rises above material things" is an idiotic snob. You will find all these metaphysicians in time of war beating the drum for the powers that be, because they are unbalanced and afraid for — — — eats, drink, rent, etc. For "business reasons" they will uphold the status quo and preach loyalty to the reigning power, instead of loyalty to Principle, the principle of Matthew 6:33. Suddenly the monarch is "divinely led" and Marion is his apostle.

"Man cannot serve two masters . . . "

PROPOSED SITE FOR ROOSEVELT STATUE

A committee of admirers of the president was trying to decide where to place his statute in the Capitol. They decided it would not do to place it next to Washington, who never told a lie. They decided it would not do to place him next to Lincoln, because he was known as "Honest Abe". The committee was very much in a quandary, but after careful consideration they decided to place the statute next Columbus. Columbus did not care where the H—! he was going, did not know where he was when he got there, did not know where he had been when he got back, and he did it all on borrowed money.
